

中国国家留学基金管理委员会 CHINA SCHOLARSHIP COUNCIL

Jan. 22, 2013

Dear Professor Klaus Schulten,

It is a great honor to inform you that Mr./ Ms. Yanxin Liu, standing out from a competition, has been granted the 2012 Chinese Government Award for Outstanding Self-financed Students Abroad by China Scholarship Council(CSC)".

This award was founded by the Chinese government in 2003 with the purpose of rewarding the academic excellence of self-financed Chinese students studying overseas. Only those with outstanding performance in their PhD studies will be considered by the award selection panel and no more than 500 young talents will be granted the award each year all over the world.

On behalf of the China Scholarship Council, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your full support and conscientious supervision, which have contributed to his/her remarkable academic achievements. I would highly appreciate your continuous attention on his/her academic research and career development in the future.

Congratulations and with best wishes!

Dr. Liu Jinghui

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to be '刘敬辉' (Liu Jinghui), is placed below the printed name.

Secretary-General
China Scholarship Council